News and Notices - September 2020

A very warm welcome to our worship today

We are resuming weekly services from the start of September. The services will be held at 10.30am as follows:

6 September Nick White
13 September Ade Benson
20 September David Innes – Holy Communion (details TBC)
27 September Mark Gilks – All age, Harvest

We are following Government and Church guidelines so things will be different in many ways but it is wonderful to be able to worship together.

The plans are:

- We have to keep a record of everyone present with their contact details so please don't be offended if we ask for your name and phone number
- All members of the congregation must
  - Use hand sanitiser on the way in and the way out
  - Wear your own mask at all times when in the Church
  - Practice social distancing in the Church
- All service material will be projected and we've had to put the Bibles and hymn books away for the time being but you're welcome to bring your own Bible
- The services will last about 30-40 minutes
- No singing is permitted but we will still have music
- There will be no refreshments after the service

Our preachers will not be wearing a mask as it muffles their voice but they will be at least six feet away from anyone.

We look forward to seeing you again soon
